GINO'S EAST STORY

Two Chicago cab drivers had a dream - to create a new pizza that combined their favorite old-world recipes in a deep, golden, pie-like crust. In 1966 they found a cozy old brownstone just off Michigan Avenue on Superior Street and opened the original Gino's East. Soon, word spread and people began lining up. It was an experience loved by generations of Chicagoans, celebrities, and visitors from around the world. It ushered in a new taste sensation - the Chicago-style deep dish pizza. And it made Chicago the "Pizza Capital of the World."
